New York, Sept. 28, 1854. MR. J. PAIST-Sir: In thanking you for the compliment paid me, by constituting me one of the committee to award the premiums at the Baby Convention, I would also express my deep regret that my present engagements will not admit of my leaving New York. Nothing would delight me more than to visit your beautiful city, which I have so long wished to see, and the added temptation you held out, in the shape of babies, is almost irresistable. God bless their little sweetness! But how could I choose?
